Traditional

O GOD, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of thy people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calleth us each by name, and follow where he doth lead; who, with thee and the Holy Spirit, liveth and reigneth, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Contemporary

O GOD, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING: Acts 9:36-43

NOW IN JOPPA there was a disciple whose name was Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas. She was devoted to good works and acts of charity. At that time she became ill and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in a room upstairs. Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, who heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, "Please come to us without delay." So Peter got up and went with them; and when he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was with them. Peter put all of them outside, and then he knelt down and prayed. He turned to the body and said, "Tabitha, get up." Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he showed her to be alive. This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. Meanwhile he stayed in Joppa for some time with a certain Simon, a tanner.

Refrain

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not be in want.

Psalm 23 from the Book of Common Prayer

|--|---|
| 1 The LORD is my shepherd; * I shall not be in want. | evil; * for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. |
| 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures * and leads me beside still waters. | 5 You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; * you have anointed my head with oil, and my cup is running over. |
| 3 He revives my soul * and guides me along right pathways for his Name's sake. | 6 Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, * and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever. |
| 4 Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no | |

SECOND READING: Revelation 7:9-17

I LOOKED, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!” And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.” Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?” I said to him, “Sir, you are the one that knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

GOSPEL: John 10:22-30

AT THAT TIME the festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.” Jesus answered, “I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father’s name testify to me; but you do not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep. My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand. What my Father has given me is greater than all else, and no one can snatch it out of the Father’s hand. The Father and I are one.”

Prelude

Come, Now is the Time to Worship

Come, now is the time to worship;
Come, now is the time to give your heart;
Come, just as you are to worship;
Come, just as you are before your God. Come!

One day every tongue will confess You are God;
One day every knee shall bow
Still, the greatest treasure remains for those
Who gladly choose you now. (Repeat vs. 1)

Communion Song

Your Love Is What I've Learned

Standing on the edge, Not knowing where to turn,
Lord your saving grace gives me comfort and strength.
Your Love Is What I've Learned. Your Love Is What I've Learned.

Looking in the mirror, Not liking what I see,
Sometimes your forgiveness Is all I really need.
Your Love Is What I've Learned. Your Love Is What I've Learned.

I try to be patient with myself, Because you taught me kindness,
Put my shame aside, And listen to your word.
You teach me to find courage, When I am filled with doubt.
And see myself through your eyes, As you see me now.

The war I fight inside, Where my victory hides,
Tears fall in my hands, But I'm grounded where I stand.
Your Love Is What I've Learned. Your Love Is What I've Learned

When I'm too hard on myself Lord, you shine a light.
I can face another day I can breathe, I'm alive.
Your Love Is What I've Learned Your Love Is What I've Learned

I try to be patient with myself, Because you taught me kindness.
Put my shame aside, And listen to your word.
You teach me to find courage When I am filled with doubt.
And see myself through your eyes, As you see me now.

I laid it on the table, Surrendering to you.
My perfect Father, My rock and my refuge.
Your Love Is What I've Learned

I try to be patient with myself, Because you taught me kindness.
Put my shame aside, And listen to your word.
You teach me to find courage, When I am filled with doubt.
And see myself through your eyes, As you see me now.
Your Love is What I've Learned Your Love Is What I've Learned.

Closing Song

Glorious Day

One day when Heaven was filled with His praises,
One day when sin was as black as could be,
Jesus came forth to be born of a Virgin,
Dwelt among men, my example is He.
The Word became flesh and the light shined among us,
His glory revealed!

Refrain: Living He loved me, dying He saved me,
And buried He carried my sins far away.
Rising He justified freely forever,
One day He's coming,
Oh, glorious day, Oh, glorious day.

One day they led Him, up Calvary's mountain,
One day they nailed Him to die on a tree,
Suffering anguish, despised and rejected,
Bearing our sins, my Redeemer is He.
The hand that healed nations, stretched out on a tree,
And took the nails from me. Refrain

One day the grave could conceal Him no longer,
One day the stone rolled away from the door,
Then He arose, over death He had conquered,
Now is ascended, my Lord evermore.
Death could not hold Him,
The grave could not keep Him from rising again. Refrain

Bridge: One day the trumpet will sound for His coming,
One day the skies with His glories will shine,
Wonderful day, my beloved one bringing,
My Savior Jesus is mine. (pause)

Final Refrain: Living He loved me, dying He saved me,
And buried He carried my sins far away,
Rising He justified freely forever,
One day He's coming, Oh, glorious day,
Oh, glorious day, Glorious day, Oh, glorious day!
